Origin of Table Tennis

Table tennis was invented in England in the late 1870s as an indoor alternative to lawn tennis. It was popular in Central Europe in 1905-10, and even before this a modified version had been introduced to Japan, where it later spread to China and Korea. After a period when it had dropped out of favour in Europe, the game was revived in England and Wales in the early twenties.

Table Tennis Today

Table tennis has developed into a major world-wide sport, practised by 40 million competitive players and by uncountable millions who play less seriously. The game itself has not changed in essence since its earliest days, though it is faster, more subtle and more demanding than it was even only 20 years ago.

Table Tennis at the Olympic Games

Table tennis did not make its Olympic debut until Seoul in 1988. Australia has never won a medal in table tennis at the Olympic Games. In Atlanta, our representatives were Russell Lavalley, Paul Langley, Mark Smythe, Shirley Zhou and Stella Zhou.

Table Tennis in Australia

The first recorded Australian table tennis match was played in Adelaide in 1898. By the turn of the century, there were competitions in the most major population areas.

During 1998, a match was played between France and Australia to commemorate 100 years of table tennis in Australia.

Australia has sent players to all the Olympic Games since Seoul.

In Australia, there are approximately 8000 registered players, but a government survey has shown more than three million Australians have played the sport.

Les origines du tennis de table

Le tennis de table a fait son apparition en Angleterre à la fin des années 1870 comme variante en salle du tennis sur gazon. Ce sport était très populaire en Europe centrale en entre 1905 et 1910, et une version plus ancienne encore, bien que légèrement différente, existait au Japon, avant de se répandre en Chine et en Corée. Après une période plus calme en Europe, l'intérêt du jeu fut ravivé en Angleterre et au Pays de Galles au début des années 1920.

Le tennis de table de nos jours

Pratiqué par 40 millions de personnes en compétition et plusieurs autres millions en tant que sport de loisir, le tennis de table fait partie des sports universels. Le jeu en lui-même n'a pas changé depuis ses origines, mais il est bien plus rapide, plus subtile et plus exigeant qu'il y a seulement vingt ans.

Le tennis de table aux Jeux Olympiques

Le tennis de table ne fait partie du programme olympique que depuis Séoul en 1988. L'équipe australienne n'a jamais remporté de médaille en tennis de table aux Jeux Olympiques. A Atlanta, l'Australie était représentée par Russell Laval, Paul Langley, Mark Smythe, Shirley Zhou et Stella Zhou.

Le tennis de table en Australie

Le premier match de tennis de table joué en Australie a eu lieu à Adélaïde en 1898, et au début du XX^e siècle, des compétitions étaient organisées dans toutes les grandes villes. En 1998, un match a été organisé entre la France et l'Australie pour marquer 100 ans de tennis de table en Australie.

La délégation australienne a toujours été représentée en tennis de table aux Jeux Olympiques depuis Séoul.

Environ 8 000 Australiens pratiquent ce sport en compétition, mais selon une enquête du gouvernement, plus de trois millions d'Australiens ont déjà joué au tennis de table.

The Olympic table tennis competition will be held from Saturday 16 September (Day 1) to Monday 25 September (Day 10) at the State Sports Centre, Sydney Olympic Park. There will be a maximum of 172 table tennis athletes (86 men and 86 women) at the Sydney 2000 Olympic Games.

COMPETITION FORMAT

The Olympic Games table tennis competition will include men's singles, women's singles, men's doubles and women's doubles.

Men's and Women's Singles

There will be 64 entries with a maximum of three players from the same NOC. All matches in singles events will be decided on the best of five games (three out of five).

There will be 16 seeded players. Seeding will be made in accordance with the International Table Tennis Federation (ITTF) regulations, by ranking, as per the latest current World Ranking list available at the date of the draw.

The 16 seeded players are allocated by lot into the draw separating players from the same NOC as per the ITTF regulation for that purpose.

Forty-eight players will compete in 16 preliminary groups of three players per group. The winner of each preliminary group will advance to the final draw (round of 32) joining the 16 seeded players.

In the group stage, the 16 highest-ranked players will be placed in 16 groups in the order from A - P and the remaining players will be drawn into these groups four at a time, on the "snake" principle.

Thus players 17 - 20 will be drawn among groups M, N, O and P, 21 - 24 among I - L and so on. No group will contain two or more players from the same NOC.

Men's and Women's Doubles

Players in each doubles pair must be from the same NOC. There can be no more than 43 pairs with each NOC being allowed two pairs.

There will be eight seeded pairs with seeding carried out in accordance with the ITTF regulations by ranking, based on the list produced for the purpose by the ITTF Ranking Committee.

The eight seeded pairs are allocated by lot into the draw, separating players from the same NOC following the ITTF regulations for that purpose.

The final stage of qualification will comprise knockout (single elimination) matches to reduce the field from 34 to 32 pairs for women and from 36 to 32 pairs for men.

In the second stage, 24 pairs will compete in eight preliminary groups of three pairs.

Matches in the qualification round will be decided by the best of three games (two out of three).

The winning pair from each preliminary group will advance to the final draw (round of 16) joining the eight seeded pairs.

The knockout (single elimination) stage will start from the round of the last 16. Matches in the knockout round will be decided by the best of five games.

RULES OF TABLE TENNIS

The table tennis competitions at the Sydney 2000 Olympic Games will be held in accordance with the Olympic Charter and the International Table Tennis Federation Rules, which are in force at the time of the Sydney 2000 Olympic Games.

Pursuant to the Olympic Charter, the ITTF assumes the responsibility for the technical control and direction of its sport at the Olympic Games.

Jury

The jury will consist of nine members, comprising the referee, the chairmen of the ITTF Rules and Technical Committees and one representative from each of the six continental areas present.

Referees

The ITTF will appoint one referee and three deputy referees. One of the referees will be from Australia and at least one of the others will be from a different continent.

Umpires

The ITTF will appoint eight teams of three umpires.

Protest and Appeals

Appeals will be decided in accordance with Section 3.3.3 of the ITTF Regulations for International Competitions.

Les compétitions olympiques de tennis de table se dérouleront du samedi 16 septembre (jour 1) au lundi 25 septembre 2000 (jour 10). Tous les matches se disputeront au Centre sportif du Parc olympique de Sydney. Le nombre d'athlètes pouvant prendre part aux compétitions est limité à 172 (86 hommes et 86 femmes).

FORMAT DES COMPETITIONS

Les compétitions olympiques de tennis de table comprendront des épreuves masculines et féminines en simple et en double.

Simples

Le nombre d'inscriptions sera de 64, avec un maximum de trois joueurs par CNO. Tous les matches des épreuves en simple se décideront au meilleur de cinq manches (trois sur cinq). 16 joueurs seront classés têtes de série. Le placement des têtes de série sera établi en accord avec le règlement de la Fédération Internationale de Tennis de Table (ITTF), en fonction du classement mondial le plus récent à la date du tirage au sort. Les 16 têtes de série seront tirées au sort en séparant les joueurs d'un même CNO conformément au règlement de l'ITTF.

48 joueurs s'affronteront dans 16 groupes préliminaires de 3 joueurs chacun. Le vainqueur de chaque groupe accédera au tirage au sort final où il rejoindra les 16 têtes de série (tour à 32 joueurs).

Dans la phase de groupe, les 16 joueurs les mieux classés seront placés chacun dans un groupe portant une lettre de A à R (I et O étant exclus). Les joueurs restants seront tirés au sort par lot de 4, selon le principe du "serpent", c'est à dire que les 4 joueurs ayant les numéros 17 à 20 seront placés dans les groupes N, P, Q et R, les numéros 21 à 24 dans les groupes J à M, etc. Chaque CNO ne pourra avoir plus d'un joueur par groupe.

Doubles

Il y aura 43 inscriptions maximum (une inscription correspondant à une paire) et 8 paires têtes de série.

Les têtes de série seront désignées en accord avec le règlement de l'ITTF, en fonction du classement établi à cette fin par le comité de classement de l'ITTF, et en séparant les paires venant d'un même CNO, conformément au règlement de l'ITTF.

La première phase de qualification comportera, si nécessaire, des matches d'élimination directe afin de réduire le nombre de paires à 32. Dans la deuxième phase, un maximum de 24 paires s'affronteront dans un maximum de 8 groupes préliminaires comprenant chacun 3 paires (si possible). Les matches du tour de qualification se décideront au meilleur des 3 manches (2 manches sur 3).

La paire vainqueur de chaque groupe participera au tirage au sort final (tour à 16 joueurs) qui décidera des matches avec les têtes de série.

La phase d'élimination directe commencera lorsqu'il ne restera plus que 16 joueurs. Les matches de cette phase seront remportés au meilleur des 5 manches.

REGLEMENT DES COMPETITIONS

Les compétitions de tennis de table se dérouleront conformément à la Charte olympique et au règlement de la Fédération Internationale de Tennis de Table (ITTF) pour les compétitions internationales, en vigueur au moment des Jeux Olympiques de Sydney 2000.

En vertu de la Charte olympique, l'ITTF assume la responsabilité du contrôle et de la direction techniques du tennis de table aux Jeux Olympiques de Sydney 2000.

Jury

Le jury sera composé d'un arbitre, des présidents du comité de règlement et du comité technique, ainsi que d'un représentant de chacune des six zones continentales.

Arbitres

L'ITTF nommera un arbitre et trois arbitres-adjoints. Il y aura un arbitre du pays hôte et au moins un arbitre d'un autre continent.

Juges

L'ITTF nommera huit équipes de trois juges .

Réclamations et appels

Les réclamations seront traitées selon la procédure d'appel prévue dans l'article 3.3.3. du règlement de l'ITTF pour les compétitions internationales.
